NOTES IN SEASON.

S. C. GRIGGS & Co. will publish, August 26, "The System of Mental Philosophy," by Prof. Asa Mahan, D.D. The object of the author is to furnish in this new book a complete system of mental science for the study of academy, high school, and college classes.

A. D. F. RANDOLPH & Co. have just published "John Wiclif," by Prof. Lechler, translated from the German with additional notes by Rev. Peter Lorimer; also "The State of the Blessed Dead," by Henry Alford, D.D., and "The Coming of the Bridegroom," by the same author.

ESTES & LAURIAT will shortly issue "Ferguson's History of Architecture," from the earliest times to the present day; also "Palestine, Historical and Descriptive," by the Rev. L. Gage and Dean Stanley; and the "Home-book of Poetry," compiled by Dana Estes from the best English and American poets.

S. E. CASSINO announces for publication on Aug. 15, "The Naturalist's Assistant," illustrated. The author, Prof. J. S. Kingsley, has given much attention to the study of preparing specimens for the cabinet, and this renders the book valuable alike to the young student or experienced scientist.

WILLIAM WOOD & Co. have just ready the new and thoroughly revised edition of Brown's Grammars, to which reference has before been made. The books thus published are the "First Lines" and the "Institutes," and a careful revision has been made, so that the text-books may be fully adapted to the present educational demands.

THE RAILWAY REVIEW will publish during the present month a practical treatise on "Rocks, Minerals, and Stocks," designed for popular reading, by Frederick H. Smith, and intended as a vade mecum for every one interested in lands, mines, and stocks. The author is an eminent engineer, who has also had large experience in the matters of which he writes.

D. APPLETON & Co. will shortly issue "The Home Needle" and "Home Occupations," as additional volumes in their series of Appletons' Home Books; also new cheap editions of Miss Woolson's "Rodman the Keeper" and Dr. Pierson's "In the Brush." Austin Dobson's "Eighteenth Century Essays" will form a new volume in the series entitled "English Classics."

ROBERT A. TRIPPLE, Phila., has just ready an interesting book for seekers of out-of-the-way information. It is called "The Queer, the Quaint, the Quizzical," and is the work of Frank H. Stauffer. It is truly "a cabinet for the curious," embracing odd facts about books, titles, and queer blunders, omens, strange customs, superstitions, legends, and many rare literary treasures.

P. BLAKISTON, SON & Co. have nearly ready the Lea Prize Thesis of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, by Dr. Samuel O. L. Potter. The subject is "Speech and its Defects, Physiologically, Pathologically, Historically, and Remedially Considered." Also in preparation Mayne's "Therapeutical Remembrancer," which presents medicaments, with tables, offering or recalling suggestions of resource from the Materia Medica.

HARPER & BROS. publish "Troilus and Cressida," with notes by William J. Rolf, A.M., in the English Classics series, and have nearly ready "Outlines of Ancient History," by P. V. N. Myers, A.M., a comprehensive volume of the histories of nations prior to the fall of the Western Roman Empire in the fifth century. The author has aimed at tracing distinct periods of growth, rather than at giving the details of special dynasties or the chronicles of petty wars.

C. W. BARDEEN announces for early issue in his Dime Series a "Question-Book of Theory and Practice of Teaching;" "Question-Book of Rhetoric;" "Question-Book of General History;" "Question-Book of Mythology;" "Question-Book of Literature"—all compiled, with notes, queries, etc., by Albert P. Southwick. In The Pestalozzian Series he will issue the "First Year Arithmetic Teacher's Manual" and "Text-Book for Pupils," by James H. Hoose, Ph.D.

ROBERT CARTER & BROS. will have ready shortly Miss Warner's new story, to be entitled "Nobody," by the author of the "Wide, Wide World;" and "The Human Mind," a treatise on mental philosophy, by Edward John Hamilton, D.D., an important work, conceived and commenced twelve years ago, the construction of which has been the author's principal labor during the past seven years of his professorship in Hanover College. Its completion and perfection has been the sole aim of his studies during the past three years. They will also issue a little volume of comfort for the desponding and bereaved by the Rev. Theo. L. Cuyler, D.D., to be called "God's Light on Dark Clouds;" "Fifteen," a story by Mrs. Jennie M. Drinkwater Conklin, author of "Rue's Helps," etc.; "Moses and the Prophets," a review of Prof. W. Robertson Smith and Dr. A. Kuennen, by Dr. W. H. Green, of Princeton Seminary; and a new and cheaper edition of "Forty Years in the Turkish Empire," a memoir of Dr. Goodell, by Rev. E. D. G. Prime.

CATALOGUES RECEIVED.

From James Anglin & Co., 1424 F. St., Washington, D. C.:—List of books, reports, documents and pamphlets published by the Department of the Interior and its branches. Pt. 24 p. 8°. pap.

—From the same:—List of publications issued by Congress and the Executive Departments from 1867 to 1881. Pt. 3, 56 p. 8°. pap.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In this list, the titles in brevier are direct transcriptions from books actually received, according to the rule of the American Library Association; those in nonpareil are from the best information available, and will be repeated in brevier when the book is received for registry.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); G. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tl. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights. Where figure instead of letter symbols are used, the record is from publisher's designation, and not measurement.

Imported books are marked with an asterisk; authors' and subscription books, or books published at net prices, with two asterisks; educational books published at "wholesale" prices, with a dagger.

- Auerbach, Berthold. The professor's lady. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 20 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1347.) pap., 10 c.
- Autobiography of a West Pointer; written at the request of George Washington, General Chewflicker and some foreign gentlemen, by Captain Dum John, of the late U. S. Army. N. Y., Metropolitan Pub. Co., 1882. 3-72 p. il. O. cl., 75 c.; pap., 50 c.
- This is a comic history, amusingly illustrated, of the life of a West Point graduate.
- Baltzell, I., and Lorenz, E. S. Gates of praise. Dayton, O., United Brethren Pub. House, 1882. 192 p. ob. 16°. bds., 35 c.
- Baring-Gould, S. Legends of the patriarchs and prophets, and other Old Testament characters. N. Y., N. Tibbals & Sons, 1882. 380 p. 12°. cl., $1.
- Belot, Adolphe. Marguerite Lacoste; or, Fleur-de-crime, pt. 1. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 40 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1353.) pap., 20 c.
- Besant, Walter, and Rice, Ja. They were married. N. Y., J. S. Ogilvie & Co., 1882. 46 p. Q. (People's lib., no. 309.) pap., 15 c.
- Brigham, Gershon N., M.D. Phthisis pulmonalis; or, tubercular phthisis. N. Y. and Phil., Boericke & Tafel, 1882. 5-244 p. O. cl., $2.
- Dr. Brigham says in his introduction: "From the homœopathic standpoint no very exhaustive treatise has yet appeared [upon pulmonary consumption]. Upon histological and pathological questions much has been written of late, and yet the profession has come to no agreement." This volume presents, in a succinct manner, the salient points of the opposite views advanced on the subject by three leading homœopathic pathologists—those of Prof. Bennett, who believes the disease to be essentially one of faulty nutrition, Prof. Virchow, who considers it one of inflammation, and Prof. Rindfleisch, who relegates it to the class of infectious disease, "not doubting that there may be much truth in what is advanced by each of them, but doubting if any one presents the whole matter included in the causes and transformations of the lesion known by the general term of phthisis pulmonalis." This will show the catholic and exhaustive manner in which the subject is treated. The indications for treatment are very full and clear. Index.
- Bunyan, J. The pilgrim's progress. New ed., with memoir and 56 il. N. Y., N. Tibbals & Sons, 1882. 448 p. 12°. cl., $1.
- Carson, J. G., D.D. Communion, secret societies and Psalmody: being tracts nos. 21, 24 and 26, bound. Pittsburgh, Pa., United Presb. Bd. of Pub., 1882. 8°. cl., net, 25 c.
- Cherouny, H. Socialism and Christianity: sober thoughts for all who are concerned in the welfare of our industry. N. Y., H. Cherouny, 1882. 41 p. O. pap., 15 c.
- Civil-service reform; or, the postmaster's revenge; written for the half-breeds at the request of some stalwarts, by Major Simpleton, formerly a postmaster and once of the marines. N. Y., Metropolitan Pub. Co., 1882. 110 p. T. cl., 60 c.; pap., 40 c.
- Burlesque papers upon Civil-service reform examinations; the New York Grand Custom House; Washington society; Stalwarts and Half-breeds; Spoils system; How to get the office and how to keep it.
- Connor, G. C. Guide to Chattanooga and Lookout Mountain; with descriptions of the battlefields, cemeteries, industries, climate, minerals, timber, etc. Chattanooga, Tenn., T. H. Payne & Co., [1882]. 59 p. il. O. pap., 25 c.
- Cooper, Rev. J. T. In memoriam: a sketch of the life of the late Rev. W. Bruce, D.D. Pittsburg, Pa., United Presb. Bd. of Pub., 1882. 18°. por. cl., net, 25 c.
- Daugé, Henri. A fair philosopher. N. Y., G. W. Harlan & Co., 1882. 296 p. D. (The Kaaterskill ser.) cl., $1.
- This, the first issue of a new series of novels, is by the author of "The Georgians," a novel published anonymously in the "Round-robin series." The "Kaaterskill" series is in a distinguishing dress of cadet blue, with stampings of dull red and silver. The design of the front cover is graceful and characteristic. The scene of the novel is laid in a summer resort near New York; "the fair philosopher" is the daughter of a broken-down literary man, and is herself a writer of successful books; her love story is the point on which the plot turns.
- Duff, Rev. Alex. Missions the chief end of the Christian Church. New cheap ed. Pittsburg, Pa., United Presb. Bd. of Pub., 1882. 36 p. pap., 5 c.
- Farrow, E. S. A military system of gymnastic exercises, and a system of swimming; prepared under the instructions of the superintendent, for the use of the cadets of the United States Military Academy and military colleges. N. Y., Metropolitan Pub. Co., 1882. 63+20 p. il. D. cl., $1.50; pap., $1.
- This course of gymnastics and system of swimming were prepared to meet a long-felt want in the corps of cadets at the U. S. Military Academy. By briefing and generalizing from larger works, the author has made a very suitable textbook that other than those training for soldiers will find interesting and useful. The book is adopted as a text-book at West Point, where Lieut. Farrow is Assistant Instructor of Tactics.
- Farrow, E. S. Mountain scouting: a handbook for officers and soldiers on the frontier; containing numerous notes on the art of travel. N. Y., Metropolitan Pub. Co., 1882. 248+36 p. il. D. cl., $3; pap., $2.
- Contains chapters on: The horse; The rifle; Medical and surgical hints; Useful information in post and field; Field equipage and supplies; Mountain travel; Pack-mules and packing; Marching; Forced marches; Crossing rivers; The camp; The mess; Living off the country; Indian character; The trail, signs and signals; Points to be observed in the Indian country, and numerous notes on the art of travel and experiences in the Indian country. The appendix consists of a complete land-taught system of swimming, a chapter on rowing, and the entire Chinook vocabulary.
- Farrow, E. S. Pack-mules and packing. N. Y., Metropolitan Pub. Co., 1882. 22 p. il. D. cl., $1; pap., 50 c.
- Prepared for the use of officers in teaching their men the art of packing scientifically; contains also description of the packing gear. Author, Lieut. Farrow, is Assistant Instructor of Tactics at West Point.
- Franklin, B. Works; containing several political and historical tracts not included in any former edition, and many letters, official and private, not hitherto published; with notes and a life of the author, by Jared Sparks. Chic., Townsend MacCoun, 1882. In 10 v., V. 2. 12+557 p. por. Q. cl., $20; hf. cf. or hf. mor., $40 (for complete work).
- See notice, Weekly Record, P. W., July 29, '82 [550.]
- Hall, Rev. Arthur C. A. The example of the Passion: five meditations. N. Y., James Pott, 1882. 78 p. 32°. pap., 35 c.

- Hayes, J. L. The Angora goat: its origin, culture and products; containing the most recent observations of eminent herders; with appendix on the Alpaca and its congeners, or the wool-bearing animals of the Cordilleras of the Andes. N. Y., The Orange Judd Co., 1882. 12°. cl., $1.50.
- Heyse, Paul. L'Arrabiata, and other tales. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 23 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1344.) pap., 10 c.
- Hough, Franklin B. Elements of forestry; designed to afford information concerning the planting and care of forest trees for ornament or profit, and giving suggestions for the creation and care of woodlands, with the view of securing the greatest benefit for the longest time; particularly adapted to the wants and conditions of the United States. Cin., Rob. Clarke & Co., 1882. il. 12°. cl., $2.
- Illustrated Hebrew almanac for the year 5643; from Sep. 14, 1882, to Oct. 1, 1883. N. Y., S. Funk, 1882. 87 p. O. pap., 25 c.
- Jacobs, H. E., D.D. The book of Concord; or, the symbolical books of the Evangelical Lutheran Church; with historical introduction, notes, appendices and indices. In 2 v., V. 1: The confessions. Phil., G. W. Frederick, 1882. 672 p. 8°. cl., $6.
- Linton, G. W. Twilight zephyrs. St. Louis, J. Burns, 1882. 96 p. 16°. bds., 20 c.
- Melville, G. J. Whyte. Contraband; or, a losing hazard. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 46 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1343.) pap., 20 c.
- Melville, G. J. Whyte. Sister Louise; or, the story of a woman's repentance. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 37 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1350.) pap., 20 c.
- Nott, R. M. Memoir of Abner Kingman Nott, by his brother. N. Y., Charles T. Evans, 1882. 290 p. 12°. cl., $1.50.
- Peter, C. Chronological tables of Greek history; with short narrative of events, with references to the sources of information and extracts from ancient authorities; from the German by G. Chawner. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 12 + 142 p. 4°. cl., *$3.
- Plum, W. R. The military telegraph during the civil war in the United States; with an exposition of ancient and modern means of communication, and of the Federal and Confederate cipher systems; also a running account of the war between the states. Chic., Jansen, McClurg & Co., 1882. 2 v., 4 + 377; 390 p. il. por. and maps, O. cl., $5.
- "A strong conviction that the members of the United States Military Telegraph Corps, whose services were so essential to the overthrow of the rebellion, have been unkindly overlooked by the Federal government and the historian; and the daily increasing indications that their noble work, performed in times and places of greatest danger, was surely passing into unmerited oblivion, on whose brink much of the data collected for this work were found, has alone impelled me to spend so much of my time as has been necessary to prepare this history. The idea is too generally accepted that all the credit for crushing the rebellion belongs to the army. If any one shall read these volumes without realizing that Congress in conferring upon the army, composed as it was of as brave and patriotic men as ever lived, all the honors and rewards due for military gallantry and usefulness, did gross injustice to the members of the Telegraph Corps, then I have injured, 'with faint praise' a cause deserving better representation."—Pre-fac. Many Southern operators have furnished interesting and important reminiscences of incidents which occurred within the Confederate lines. The author has had access to important telegrams and official and other papers never before published. The two volumes are handsomely printed, with portraits, maps and illustrations.
- Redcliffe, Sir J. Nena Sahib; oder, die Empörung in Indien: histor. polit. Roman, pt. 1. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 74 p. Q. (Deutsche Library, no. 107.) pap., 20 c.
- Regan, Ja. A manual of guard duty and kindred subjects for the regular army, volunteers and militia of the United States: being a thorough compilation of rules, regulations and principles, collected from the most authentic sources. N. Y., Harper, 1882. 32°. leath. with clasp, $2.
- Reid, Rev. W. J. United Presbyterianism. Pittsburg, Pa., United Presb. Bd. of Pub., 1882. 192 p. 12°. cl., 60 c.
- Robinson, S. W. Railroad economics; or, notes with comments, from a tour over Ohio railways under the Hon. H. Sabine, Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs. Reprinted from Van Nostrand's Magazine. N. Y., D. Van Nostrand, 1882. 131 p. il. T. (Van Nostrand's sci. ser., no. 59.) bds., 50 c.
- The present paper, without aiming at criticism, seeks to bring out such facts and call attention to such features of railway practice as shall assist the different roads of the State [Ohio] in an effort to arrive at a uniform standard of excellence.
- Robinson, S. W. Strength of wrought-iron bridge members. Reprinted from Van Nostrand's Magazine. N. Y., D. Van Nostrand, 1882. 175 p. il. T. (Van Nostrand's sci. ser., no. 60.) bds., 50 c.

- Russell, W. Clark. My watch below; or, yarns spun when off duty. N. Y., Harper, 1882. 62 p. Q. (Harper's Franklin sq. lib., no. 264.) pap., 20 c.
- These 36 short stories, the author of "The wreck of the 'Grosvenor'" states, "are offered in a collected form, mainly because of their representative character. They cover most of those perils of the deep which the sailor of to-day has to encounter, and they may also here and there be found to shed a little light upon the private views of a community of persons of whose vocation and sentiments it would be unreasonable to suppose that landmen should know much."
- Scott, Sir Walter. The antiquary. N. Y., G. Munro, 1882. 76 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1328.) pap., 20 c.
- Shepherd, Mrs. E. R. For girls: a special physiology; being a supplement to the study of general physiology. N. Y., Fowler & Wells, 1882. 214 p. il. D. cl., $1.
- Chapters on subjects relative to a young girl's life and health which she ought to know, and which are generally considered within the province of a mother to communicate.
- Southwick, Albert P. Question-book of literature, with notes, queries, etc. Syracuse, N. Y., C. W. Bardeen, 1882. 33 p. 16°. (Dime ser.) pap., 10 c.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

MR. GEORGE JACOB HOLYOAKE will visit this country at the end of August to collect materials for a book to promote emigration, supplying practical information about different parts of America.

M. ALPHONSE L. PINART, who has travelled extensively throughout Central America and Mexico, in quest of archaeological and ethnographic treasures, is now here on his way back to Paris, where the results of his researches will be published.

THE similarity in the initials of the two novelists E. R. and E. P. Roe sometimes causes confusion. Mr. E. R. Roe is the author of a recent historical novel, "Brought to Bay." He was formerly U. S. Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois. Mr. E. P. Roe is well known as the successful fruit culturist and author of successful novels, residing at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, N. Y.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

A PORTRAIT of the late D. G. Rossetti with a sonnet and a critical sketch by E. W. Gosse will appear in the September Century.

MR. EDWARD A. FREEMAN, the English historian, who visited this country last winter, has published his impressions of the United States in the Fortnightly Review.

Q. P. INDEX, Bangor, issues an author and subject-index ("Autoren und Sach-register") to the Deutsche Rundschau. It is prepared by W. M. Griswold, whose work in indexing is so well known, and is similar to his other indexes to certain German historical periodicals. The Rundschau dates from the year 1874.

OBITUARY.

JOSEPH H. MEEHAN.

THE frequenters of the store of Henry Miller, 82 Nassau Street, New York, as well as the trade generally, will be pained to learn of the death, a few days since, of Mr. Joseph H. Meehan, well and familiarly known as "Joe." Mr. Meehan had been in the employ of Mr. Miller for fifteen years, taking full charge of the business during Mr. Miller's trips to Europe. He gave promise of becoming one of the best-posted men in the trade, and inquirers interested in special subjects were certain of getting some information from him regarding the books published on the subject that interested them. Mr. Meehan's loss will be keenly felt by his employer and the friends he had made in the trade. He leaves a wife and one child.

The Publishers' Weekly.

AUGUST 12, 1882.

PUBLISHERS are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, to insure correctness in the final entry.

The trade are invited to send "Communications" to the editor on any topic of interest to the trade, and as to which an interchange of opinion is desirable. Also, matter for "Notes and Queries," gratefully received.

In case of business changes, notification or card should be immediately sent to this office for entry under "Business Notes." New catalogues issued will also be mentioned when forwarded.

"Every man is a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE rules and regulations of the American Catholic Publishers' Association, having reached us too late for the last number of the WEEKLY, are printed in this issue. By request of the Secretary of the Association the figures of discount have been here omitted. This precaution breathes the spirit of the business of former days, when caution and discretion were still found among the main pillars of the trade. To-day, when everything is published to everybody and everybody knows everything, people are so much enlightened on the subject of "discounts" that in many cases customers can give their bookseller "a point or two," though in no case will they give him the price without "discount." We have heard of other trades complaining that people, formerly pleasant enough, once having caught the "discount" fever at the bazaar and gift-book stores, were becoming very ugly customers; but we have not yet heard of any one of these trades, because of this, allowing itself to be dictated to by its customers into adopting the bad habits of the book and publishing trades. We understand that the American Catholic Book Publishers' Association will readily give every legitimate bookseller all the information he is entitled to—but (it is positively refreshing to quote what to-day sounds so odd and original) "no one shall be considered as a dealer and entitled to the discounts of a dealer who is not regularly engaged in the sale of books to secure his livelihood." The American Catholic book publishers evidently mean business and want "no triflers."

THE following paragraph, clipped from the comment of a Cincinnati journal on the Northwestern Convention, comes in quite apropos. It is a plea for the "innocent purchaser," which also means a purchaser who is used to fair and square dealing, and who, in making his purchases of books, is not prepared to be more on his guard than in buying a hat, a pound of cheese, or a quack medicine:

"A question of importance to the purchaser is the fixing of the retail price for a book. An agent of Lippincott & Co. stated to the Convention that 'when the market calls for a large discount, prices must be so arranged as to meet that discount. There is not to-day in the United States a publishing-house that does not take into consideration this one great fact, that books are retailed at twenty per cent discount.'

"This means that the publishers fix fictitious prices upon their books, expecting the purchaser to receive twenty per cent discount. Why do they not fix a square price and maintain it for their books, instead of giving an opportunity of defrauding an innocent purchaser, who is ignorant of the twenty per cent discount rule?"

The question is pertinent, and now that the "discount" game is a public secret, let us try—something else!

THE AMERICAN CATHOLIC BOOK PUBLISHERS' ASSOCIATION.

BALTIMORE, July 20, 1882.

DEAR SIR: Your attention is hereby called to the following extracts from the Rules and By-Laws of the American Catholic Book Publishers' Association, adopted at New York, July 12, 1882, taking effect August 10, 1882:

Resolved, That no one shall be considered as a dealer and entitled to the discounts of a dealer who is not regularly engaged in the sale of books to secure his livelihood.

The wholesale price to booksellers not members of this Association shall be at the rate of — per cent from retail prices; on purchases of books published by members of this Association (exclusive of school-books). On bills within one month, amounting to $100 or over, but less than $200, an extra discount of — per cent may be allowed; and if the purchases amount to $200 or over, — per cent may be allowed. This does not apply to dealers in the Pacific States, to whom a discount of — per cent may be allowed, but no extra discount on account of the amount of purchase.

That the discount on net books to dealers shall not exceed — per cent.

It shall be required of all dealers, to be entitled to the discounts named, to conform to all rules and regulations in this section as regards the sales of books to the Reverend Clergy, the Sisters, the schools, missions, or for premiums and libraries, as laid down by the Association.

The discount to clergymen, institutions and teachers shall not exceed — per cent from retail prices. This rule shall apply to libraries, premiums, missions, and all others not dealers.

Nothing shall be given as a present to bring about a purchase or to effect a sale.

The cost of boxes and the expense of shipment and freight shall in all cases be charged to the purchasers.

No member of the Association shall offer any of his publications at auction or public sale.

Nothing in this article shall apply to the sale of soiled, shop-worn, or second-hand books.

Any new publication, except prayer-books, to the amount of not less than $100 at retail, may be offered to the trade at — per cent extra from prices stated in this article, if ordered within four months after date of publication.

The credit to dealers outside of this Association shall not exceed ninety days, but it is recommended that settlements with dealers be made every month. Two per cent for cash may be allowed on payments made within ten days from such monthly settlements.

Should any dealer refuse to pay or settle his account at maturity, it shall be the duty of the member to whom the account is due to inform the Secretary of the Association of the fact, who shall at once notify the dealer of the complaint; and, if no satisfaction is given, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify all the members of such refusal.

In case any dealer shall offer the publications of any of the members of this Association at less rates than those mentioned in this article, the members of this Association shall refuse to sell said dealer, on notice from Board of Arbitration, except at retail prices.

An alphabetical catalogue of the Catholic books published by members of the Association has been printed, with the retail prices. This catalogue will be the standard from which the respective discounts will be given.

A considerable deduction has been made in the retail prices, with a fixed discount to the clergy and institutions. This arrangement gives you full control of your local trade, because if parties order from the publishers, they will have to pay freight and other expenses.

We trust you will enter into the spirit of this agreement, by conforming to these rules, both in letter and intent, and thereby assist us to establish a uniformity of prices, promote harmony in the trade, and enable us all to make a living profit. You will please report to the Secretary any violation of the above rules or any complaint you have to make.

COMMUNICATIONS.

EBERT'S BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY.

NEW YORK, August 8, 1882.

To the Editor of the Publishers' Weekly:

DEAR SIR: The current number of the WEEKLY contains a statement regarding one of the Oxford University publications which we will ask you to be good enough to correct in your next issue.

On page 175, under the heading "Books for Sale," it is stated that 'Ebert's Bibliographical Dictionary' is out of print. As business agents for the Oxford University publications, will you permit us to say that this is not the fact, the book being kept regularly on sale here, and at no time during the past few years has our supply been quite exhausted.

As a mere newspaper paragraph or advertisement, a statement like this might well pass unnoticed, but the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, we bear in mind, is a trade organ, and any statements in its columns possess so much weight that it is important they should be founded on facts.

We are yours truly,

MACMILLAN & Co.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

"A REVEREND IDOL" has gone into its seventh edition.

MACMILLAN & Co. will issue at once a work on Spinoza, by Dr. James Martineau.

REES WELSH & Co. report that the second edition of "Leaves of Grass" is nearly exhausted.

LESLIE STEPHEN'S "Swift" and H. D. Traill's "Sterne" will be the next volumes in the English Men of Letters series.

ESTES & LAURIAT have in press the second series of the "Young Folks' History of Mexico," which is spoken of as full, authentic, and interesting.

S. E. CASSINO will issue early in September Longfellow's poem, "Flower de Luce," with an artistic colored floral design on cover, and various illustrations within by Mr. Lambert Hollis and Mr. Isaac Sprague.

THE COLEGROVE BOOK Co., of Chicago, have in press a "Manual of Wood Engraving for the Amateur," by Arthur Hope, intended for the use of those who wish to learn this art without an instructor. It will be a 16mo, illustrated.

SOULE & BUGBEE will sell at auction in September a large collection of rare old books on English law, civil law, canon law, and Continental customs, including excellent specimens of the printing and binding of the 15th, 16th, and 17th centuries.

J. R. OSGOOD & Co. announce as the next volume in the American Actor series Miss Kate Field's "Charles Albert Fechter." They will also issue the private correspondence of Carlyle and Emerson from 1834 to 1872, edited by Charles Eliot Norton.

D. VAN NOSTRAND has just issued as Nos. 59 and 60 of Van Nostrand's Science Series two books by Prof. S. W. Robinson, of the Ohio State University—"Railroad Economics," composed of notes and observations from the Ohio State Railway Service, and "Strength of Wrought-Iron Bridge Members."

ESTES & LAURIAT have in preparation a People's edition of Goethe's works, edited from the best English translations by the Rev. T. H. Hedge, D.D., author of the "Prose Writers of Germany," and Prof. Leopold Noa. This first American edition contains a prose translation of Faust by Hayward, and a metrical translation edited and annotated by Dr. Hedge.

THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS COMPANY has sent us the first number of the new edition of Weber's "Allgemeine Weltgeschichte" or "Universal History." This great work by Dr. George Weber has been entirely revised, rewritten, and enlarged, with the assistance of distinguished specialists in each department. It is to be complete in fifteen volumes or one hundred numbers. The publisher is Wilhelm Engelmann, of Leipsic.

WILLIAM WOOD & Co. announce for publication in September the sixth decennial revision of the "Pharmacopœia of the United States of America," issued by authority of the National Convention of 1880. The arrangement is to be strictly alphabetical, and the text is followed by a series of useful tables and a very complete index. It will make a handsome octavo volume of 500 pages, and will constitute the lawful text-book for the physician and pharmacist until the next authorized edition in 1890.

J. A. BERLY, London, announces that "Berly's British, Continental, and American Electrical Directory" for 1883 will contain full lists of all persons connected directly or indirectly in the trade or professionally with the science of electricity, the plan of the work being to furnish a convenient hand-book for the use of electricians and manufacturers in Europe and America. Every one desiring his name to appear in the work should address immediately, giving full particulars of business, etc., the general agent for this country, George Cummings, 219 E. 18th Street, New York.

G. W. CARLETON & Co. announce for immediate issue, "The Lincoln Memorial Album—Immortelles," by Osborn H. Oldroyd. It purposes to be an album of opinions touching the life, personal recollections, and public services of Abraham Lincoln, collected from two hundred eminent Americans and Europeans, and written specially for this book. Among these two hundred contributors are Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Sherman, Hancock, Noah Porter, Lyman Abbott, Whittier, Holmes, Benson J. Lossing, Chas. A. Dana, Jno. B. Gough, Robt. Colyer, John Bright, Newman Hall, etc. It will be a book of nearly 600 octavo pages, and be sold only by subscription.

JAMES A. GRESHAM, New Orleans, has reprinted in a single volume Chief Justice Martin's "History of Louisiana," originally published in two volumes in 1827, and of late years hardly obtainable. It is prefaced by a very entertaining account of the author's singular character and career, by Judge William Wirt Howe; and Mr. John F. Condon adds a rather bald and informal register of events from 1815 (the close of Judge Martin's History) to 1861. "Imperfect as the latter is," says the N. Y. Evening Post, "it supplements in a good many particulars the corresponding summary appended to Gayarré's 'History of Louisiana—the American Domination.' The publisher has prefixed an attractive portrait of Martin."

MACMILLAN & Co. have published an enlarged and corrected edition of Dr. Dawson W. Turner's handy and valuable little book, "Hints and Remedies for the Treatment of Common Accidents and Rules of Simple Hygiene." The Boston Gazette says: "The value of this little work is sufficiently indicated by the fact that it has reached its eighth edition in London, and has been translated into five different languages. The English medical journals have, without exception, spoken of it in terms of the warmest praise. It is beyond all question an eminently useful book, and by the simplicity and clearness with which its information is imparted cannot but prove of the greatest practical use in every household."

CASSELL, PETER, GALPIN & Co. announce among other books for early publication, "Boots at the Holly Tree Inn," by Charles Dickens, with 16 full-page illustrations chromo-lithographed in 10 colors, and 16 illustrations in black and white, from original designs by J. C. Beard; "The Mother Goose Goslings," by Eleanor W. Talbot, containing upward of 50 illustrations in colors, with appropriate simple Rhymes; "Papa's Little Daughters," by Mary D. Brine, author of "My Boy and I; or, On the Road to Slumberland," over 50 illustrations, double lithograph cover in nine colors; "Fred Bradford's Debt," by Joanna H. Mathews, author of "Bessie Bradford's Secret," "The Bessie Books," etc., over 50 illustrations, double lithograph cover in 9 colors; "Little Gatherers," 40 illustrations, lithograph cover; "Bible Stories for Little Ones," with full-page illustrations, lithograph cover; "Picture Teaching for Young and Old," by Janet Byrne, with more than 200 illustrations, in elegant lithograph cover; "Wild Animals and Birds," their haunts and habits, by Dr. Andrew Wilson, pages very fully illustrated; "Sunday Chats with our Young Folks," by Clara L. Matéaux; "The Children's Hour," by Ernest Gilmore, 46 full-page illustrations, large type, elegant lithograph cover.

JOHN MORLEY's "Life of Cobden" will be issued shortly in a shilling edition.

THE next volume, being the seventh, in the series entitled Porta Linguarum Orientalium, sive Elementa Linguarum, published by H. Reuther, of Carlsruhe, will be "Grammatica Persica," by Dr. S. Landauer, of Strassburg.

THE Athenaeum says that the production of books in India is becoming so important that no time should be lost in securing one copy at least of every publication for the British Museum. It would be no hardship to extend the rule which applies to all English publishers to publishers in India also. On the contrary, it would make their publications better known, and secure a far wider market for them. During the quarter ending in March, 1882, the Bengal press alone brought out 375 publications.

A good book to recommend to Ladies going to the Country.—Combines instruction and pastime.

A Reading Diary of Modern Fiction.

Containing a representative list of the novels of the nineteenth century, preceded by suggestive remarks on novels and novel-reading.

The object of this "Reading Diary" is to present survey of all that is considered worth reading in the domain of modern fiction, and thus to make easy a daily record of what has been read, and what to read next, with a view to comparing notes and a mutual exchange of recommendations among congenial friends. It also is to serve as a check-list or guide to the choice of books at the book-store. For this purpose it presents a select list of over one thousand of the best works of modern fiction, with blank facing pages for additions or memoranda.

It is issued in 32mo (160 pages), diary style, suitable for the pocket, and is as neat and attractive in appearance as it is useful in contents and novel in plan. Retail price, paper, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents; russias, gilt edges, $1. Orders filled by the jobbers.

SEASON 1882-1883. L. PRANG & CO.'S SEASON 1882-1883.

Christmas and New Year's Cards.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—We beg leave to announce the completion of our line of Christmas and New Year Cards for the season 1882-1883, for which our agents will commence to solicit orders in May. We feel confident that the popularity which our Cards have enjoyed in former seasons will again be secured by the efforts we have made to bring out a line in advance of all our previous productions. The names of the artists who have contributed designs is proof of our continued efforts to reach the highest excellence. We will name only the following: Miss L. B. Humphrey, Miss F. Bridges, Miss Dora Wheeler, Mrs. O. E. Whitney, Miss Rosina Emmet, Miss Florence Taber, Miss L. B. Comins, Thomas Moran, Frederick Dielman, Alfred Fredericks, Alexander Saudier, Harry Beard, Walter Satterlee, R. G. Birch, Theo. Liebler, F. Schuyler Mathews, Geo. J. Barnes, H. P. Kendall.

Due regard has again been paid to the literary matter in connection with the designs, and many of the latter are accompanied by original poems, from writers of note, such as: Mrs. Celia Thaxter and Mrs. Emily Shaw Forman.
